One More Name

Tommy Bryant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bryant, and Punt-Pass-Kick winner was among the players who helped capture the T-Reb trophy for the Campbell County League championship. His name should have been included in the write-up and picture last week of "T – Rebs and Their Trophy". The Times-Virginian regrets the omission. It is our intention to give credit to all our fine young athletes.

CHESTNUT GROVE

The Rev. Nannie Bell Abbitt will preach at the Chestnut Grove Baptist Church this Sunday night. Services will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Deer Cause Recent Fires

For the second time in recent weeks a deer knocked down an electric fence, causing a fire in open land and burning about three acres of property owned by Hunt Hamilton, on county road 657 in the north eastern section of Appomattox County. The fire started about noon on Tuesday, Nov. 18, with Appomattox volunteers taking the county truck and tanker to the scene. Local wardens, Chief Fire Warden David Smith, and volunteers helped fight the blaze.

First reported incident of a deer knocking an electric fence down was on the E. T. Layne property on Thursday, Nov. 13, causing a fire which burned about three acres of open land.

Because of dry conditions (despite recent rains) Chief Fire Warden Smith has asked Leonard Garrett to man the fire tower on Piney Mountain.

Fire danger has definitely increased, says Smith, because of deer running in woodland, possibly hitting electric fencing, and the presence in the woods of hunters.

Hunt Hamilton, like many others whose woodland has been saved by prompt action of fire fighters says he is really grateful for all the help he received.

Rebels Open Season Dec. 5

Coach Stanley Thomas and his Rebel basketball players will open the new cage season Friday, Dec. 5 with four senior starters.

Mike Scott and Kenneth Hawkins, tallest boys on the squad at 6-1 will be battling for the center position with two other six-footers, Paul Harvey and Sam Page starting in the forward spots.

Rebs last year posted a 1-18 record which they hope to bring up to a sizeable improvement this year.

Guards will be John Williams, Bruce Norconk and Steve Wilson, all juniors.

Coach Thomas is a graduate of Shepherd College, West Virginia. He has been at Appomattox three years.

Thomas says, "If we play defense, we can win some games." He adds that the "boys have hustled" to shape up for the opening game.

Lions To Honor AHS Rebels

Members of the Appomattox High School football team and coaching staff will be guests of the Lions Club at the annual football banquet December 4, at the Parkway Restaurant.

Speaker will be Hank Norton, head football coach at Ferrum College.

The Lions Club will make an award to the Outstanding Back; the High School to the Outstanding Lineman; and Jaycees, Sportsmanship.

Wants Repeat Of Season

The A & B Hunt Club is hoping for a year like the last one! Club members killed eighteen bucks, with these five mounted as permanent trophies of a good season. A dinner with their wives climaxed a good hunt last year with special guest, taxidermist Malvin Mitchell, of Forest. (in foreground. Included in the club are (from left): John Christian, J. G. Franklin, president; Elton Franklin, Roger Franklin, and Franklin Smith.

Hoping For Bigger One

This nine - point buck with wide rack would seem to be an excellent trophy for hunter Roger Franklin, but he says he'll be out there again looking for an even larger one. This buck was taken Saturday in Appomattox. Franklin is a member of the A & B Hunt Club.

Senior 4-H Meets

The Senior 4-H Club of Carver Price H. S. met in the school auditorium on Nov. 12, 1969. The meeting was opened with a verse of America, the pledge to the flag, and the 4-H pledge. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary.

Old and new business was discussed. A very interesting discussion was held on "The Wise Use of Money." After which the meeting was adjourned.
